NEW YORK, February 5.—Trading in cotton was not active to-day, but the market support and closed very steady at a net advance of 5g8 points. Sales for the day were estimated at 150,000 baies. The market opened steady at a decline of point on March, but generally unchanged to 2 points higher, notwithstanding lower cables than expected, At the start there seemed to be considerable pressure against the market, and there was heavy selling of October, which was supposed to be inspired by the idea that stop-orders might be caught below 9.20. Around this figure, however, the market received a good deal of support. Not only were the brokers of the leading bull interests more aggressive buyers, but there seemed to be a considerable demand through commission houses, and the seemed to be a considerable demand through commission houses, and the seemed to be a considerable demand through commission houses, and the seemed to be a considerable demand through commission houses, and the seemed to be a considerable demand through commission houses, and the series are the seemed to be a considerable demand through commission houses. buyers, but there seemed to be a considerable demand through commission houses, and the decline was quickly checked, although the buils showed little disposition to follow the market up until near the close when buying was encouraged by rumors that there has been a big business with China in the cotton goods market and reports of sales from the local stock, which, as officially stated, included 2,500 bales for export and 1,100 for consumption. The market closed at practically the best prices of the day. A little rain was reported in the Southwest, but not sufficient to influence arguments regarding a poor season in the ground, which appear to be sitracting more attention. Southern spot tourkets, officially reported, were unchanged to 1-15c, lower.

The 1-15c, lower, reports to-day were 40,066 bales against 42,514 last week and 31,580 last year. For the week 250,000 bales against 277,088 last week and 217,030 last year, To-day's receipts at New Orleans 9.052 bales against 10,367 last year, and at Houston 11,845 bales against 6,224 last year.

PRIVATE WIRES TO PRINCIPAL MARKETS

OFFICIAL RANGE AND SALE OF STOCKS IN NEW YORK,

By THOMAS BRANCH & CO., Bankers and Brokers. NEW YORK, February 5.—Short periods of animation in the dealings in stocks to-day brought the day's total sales to something above the recent average. The stirring of activity was caused by one or two occurrences to which an unfavorable interpretation was given from the standpoint of holders of securities. The character of the market, however, was not radically changed from the neglected state which has prevailed all this week.

The professional element professed apprehension over the news of another projected vacation by E. H. Harriman, accompanied by intimations of an attack of rheumatism. The weakness of Union Pacific was transferred to Denver and Rio Grande, causing a reaction in that stock. Another point or special weakness was Reading, in which there has been persistent selling for several days past. The keeping alive of the anti-Japanese agitation in California and the sensational attention given to it are not liked in speculative circles, where the possibility of a sudden untoward circumstance is kept in mind.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales (par value,) $7,834,000. United States twos, registered, declined ¼, the coupon ½, and the fours, registered, ½ per cent, on call.

Total sales of stocks to-day, $23,500 shares.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

NEW YORK, February 5.—A steady demand and a more general one is coming forward from the retail trade, and the jobbers in consequence are doing a good trade. The primary cotton goods market is steady and moderately active. A good deal of interest is being shown in wool, but trade is restricted because of the smallness of the stock. DRY GOODS MARKET.

Dun's Weekly Review.

NEW YORK, February 5.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade to-morrow will say:

Duliness of retail trade is somewhat more pronounced than usual and distribution in wholesale lines continues restricted, although there is urgency in the demand for varieties of cotton and woolen goods to provide for immediate requirements, and Ekstern manufacturers are very busy. Future orders in most lines are placed with great caution, but confidence in the Hand Buily Hurt.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

SPOTSYLVANIA, VA., February 5.—
Addison Lewis Jett, the foreman and general manager for L. R. Colbert, at his lumber mill in this county, had his right arm and hand severely mashed and torn as he was trying to adjust the belting, which had been misadjusted. In his attempt to do this his glove caught in the machinery, and drew his hand and arm into the gearing.
